

Through the Door

By Titans Class

We have been looking through the door at:

- The lives of some inspirational people (David Attenborough; Greta Thunberg and Leonardo DaVinci)
- Life in the UK – features of different counties
- Reading and writing based on the fictional story ‘The Nowhere Emporium’.

David inspires us with his animal programs

Through the Door ...into other areas of the UK!

The UK is made up of ...

- Four countries: England; Scotland; Northern Ireland and Wales
- Each Country has a Capital City (London; Edinburgh; Belfast and Cardiff)
- There are 48 counties in the UK, all are very different and have different landmarks and features.
- We each made PowerPoints to show our new knowledge of cities, counties, continents and countries.

Hills and mountains

- We researched and made bar charts to show the heights of different mountains in the UK.
- Do you know what a Topographical map is?
- Do you know what the difference is between a mountain and a hill?
- The tallest mountain in the UK (Scotland) is Ben Nevis with the elevation of 1344 metres
- The smallest mountain in England is Sleive Donard with the elevation of 850 metres.
- Well let me tell you, it measures hills and mountain from the sea levels.
- A mountain is formed by the tectonic plates crashing together or folding over each other. A hill is a naturally formed elevation of the earths surface.

Scotland

- Scotland above the north of England. The capital of Scotland is Edinburgh and the largest city is Glasgow.
- Edinburgh is the first in the world to have its own fire brigade.
- Also Scotland has approximately 790 islands.

England

- The capital city of England is London, which is also the biggest city. The second biggest city is Birmingham.
- The British Isles (the UK) became inhabited more than 800,000 years ago.
- The population now is nearly 56 million.

Northern Ireland

- Northern Ireland is the smallest country in the UK
- The capital city is Belfast
- N. Ireland is a part of the UK but it makes its own laws. The Parliament buildings of the N. Ireland are called Stormont.

Wales

- Wales is a country in the southwest of the UK known for its coastline, mountains and national parks.
- Cardiff, the capital, is a refined coastal city with a medieval castle.
- Population: just over 3 million
