

3rd May 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

I think that maybe Spring has arrived this week! Haven't we had some glorious sunny days? The school site is alive with signs of spring: children beginning to wear summer uniform, blue tits nesting in nestboxes, lots of amphibian activity in the school pond area and I am eagerly awaiting the first sight of the house martins who travel all the way from Africa to come and nest in the eaves of our school hall. With the warm weather comes more lost jumpers! Please make sure uniform is clearly named.

It has been another super settled week full of learning in all classes. A special well done to Penguin class who have achieved 100% attendance for the week. It thrills me to see high attendance because I know that means that children aren't missing out on learning.

Over the course of the summer term Mr Elcock, who will be executive headteacher in September, will be working closely with our schools to get to know us and for our schools to get to know him. I am sure that your child and you will see him around across the next few months and we know that he will receive a warm welcome from all of you. We hope that you will put this date in your diary and be able to join us online on Thursday 4th July for a parent information meeting. This will be an opportunity to hear updates about our school, but also a chance for you to hear from Mr Elcock as he prepares to take up his new role at Foulsham Primary School.

With all good wishes to you and your family for a blessed bank holiday weekend.

Kindest Regards
Mrs Lound
