

26th April 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have reached the end of another busy week full of learning, although we are within the summer term the weather certainly hasn't felt very summery over the last week. Please make sure your child arrives at school with a coat suitable for the weather, a winter coat or lighter rain jacket each day.

This afternoon you will have received a letter telling you about the exciting plans for leadership at our school from September 2024, once I have moved on. I am sure you will be pleased to hear about the plans and will be looking forward to getting to know Mr Elcock. We are very much here for you to talk to, so please do not hesitate to chat to us and ask questions which this might raise.

In our assemblies this week we have been discussing 'Earth Day' and how we can be proactive in terms of looking after our planet. The children had some wonderful ideas, perhaps this would be a great discussion to continue at home over the weekend. Wishing you and your family a blessed weekend.

Kindest Regards
Mrs Lound

As it was Earth Day on Monday, Jaguars have been inspired to do a litter pick on the field - they managed to collect two full rubbish bags of litter that could have been put in a bin instead! Well done, Jaguars!
